

Rajiv Vidya Mission, A.P., Hyderabad
Summative Model Test Paper 2013 -14

Class: VI

Marks: 40

Subject: English

Name of the Student:

Roll Number:

---

Task – I

Once upon a time, in a very thick forest lived many animals, birds, snakes and insects. There was also a bat among them. There was a bitter war between the animals and the birds. The bat did not join either side, but waited to see who would gain the upper hand.

Now answer the following:

1. Where did the animals and birds live?
2. What do you generally see in a forest other than animals?
3. Which group did the bat join? Animals / Birds
4. Why did not the bat join any group?
5. Name any two animals and birds you see in your surroundings.

Task – II

(10 Marks)

Continue reading narrative

First, when the birds began to win, the bat joined the birds and said “Hai, (friends) birds I am your friend, look I have wings like you! ” later when the animals looked like winning, the bat said “ Hai Dear animals, I am your friend.”

Write a possible conversation between the animals and the bat.

Animals : _____

Bat : _____

Animals : _____

Bat : _____

Animals : _____

After the discussion with the bat all the animals and the birds went back to their homes. On the way a fox one of the animals in the forest felt like inviting other animals to its house for a feast.

Task – III

(10 Marks)

Write down an invitation which the fox might have made. So, all the animals and the birds went for the feast. Among the birds the crow which was living with his wife in the huge banyan tree in the middle of the forest could not attend the feast as it had a problem with black a snake living in the same tree.

Task – IV

(5 Marks)

State whether the statements are true or false in the brackets given below.

- 1) All the birds attended the feast (       )
- 2) The crow could not attend the feast (       )
- 3) The snake was a friendly one (       )
- 4) The banyan tree was a small tree (       )
- 5) The crow and the snake lived at a corner of the forest (       )

Task – V

Continue reading the narrative. Punctuate the following paragraph.

that black snake was eating up all the young ones of the crow as soon as they were born the crow and his wife were very unhappy yet the crow did not want to leave the banyan tree

Task – VI

(5 Marks)

Continue reading the narrative and correct the spellings of the underlined words

Finally the crow's wifa begged her hasband to leav the tree. She said, "All my chileren have been eater by that awful snake. Let us go away and make our hom somewhere else.

Task – VII

Complete the following table with the opposite words:

(5 Marks)

go	unhappy	black	man	young

Task – VIII

(5 Marks)

Complete the following table with the Positive/Comparative/Superlative degrees of the words taken from the above passage.

Positive	Comparative	Superlative
Small
	Shorter biggest Tall
Thin

Task – IX

(10 Marks)

Now, Continue reading the narrative and change the underlined words into their past tense.

“We have lived all our lives in this tree. This tree has given us shelter. We cannot leave it. However I will think of some plan to get rid of the vicious snake. I will not be able to kill him but I have friends who will help me kill him.

Task – X

Continue reading the narrative and write the plurals of the underlined words.

The crow then went to meet his friend, the jackal. He told the whole story and asked him for help. “My friend” said the jackal, you need not worry, as the snake will meet his death soon. That has to happen to one who is so heartlessly cruel”.

Task – XI

(10 Marks)

Look at the picture of the crow with a necklace and write what would have happened to the snake.

